

Public Law 94-331
94th Congress

An Act

To amend section 815 of the Internal Revenue Code to allow a life insurance company to disregard (for purposes of that section) a distribution during the last month of its taxable year, determined to have been made out of the policyholders surplus account, if such distribution is returned to the company not later than the due date for filing its income tax return (including extensions thereof) for that year, and for other purposes.

June 30, 1976
[H.R. 10051]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) section 815(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to special rules for distributions to shareholders) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

Life insurance companies, certain distributions out of policyholders surplus account, restoration; Social Security Act, amendments.
26 USC 815.

“(6) RESTORATION OF AMOUNTS DISTRIBUTED OUT OF POLICYHOLDERS SURPLUS ACCOUNT.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, no amount shall be subtracted from a taxpayer’s policyholders surplus account with respect to a distribution made during the last month of the taxable year which, without regard to this paragraph, would be treated in whole or in part as a distribution out of the policyholders surplus account, to the extent that amounts so distributed are returned to the taxpayer no later than the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the taxpayer’s return for the taxable year in which the distribution was made. For purposes of this paragraph, amounts returned to a taxpayer with respect to a distribution shall be first applied to the return of amounts which, without regard to this paragraph, would have been treated as distributed out of the policyholders surplus account. This paragraph shall not apply if, at the time such distribution was made, the taxpayer intended to avail itself of the provisions of this paragraph by having its shareholders return all or a part of such distribution. Nothing in this paragraph shall affect the tax treatment of the receipt of the distribution by any shareholder, and the basis to a shareholder of his stock in the taxpayer shall not be increased by reason of amounts returned under this paragraph to the extent that a dividends received deduction or exclusion was allowable in respect of the distribution of such amount under any provision of this title.”.

(b) The amendment made by this section shall apply with respect to taxable years ending after December 31, 1957.

Effective date.
